Still copy-pasting Claude's work?

You paste its output into a doc, a builder, a sheet. It can just build the thing.

Five steps, or zero

1 Ask Claude for it

2 Copy the output

3 Open a doc or a builder

4 Paste it in, reformat

5 Fix what broke

👉 Artifacts: it is already built. Skip all 5.

Stop describing. Start building.

Ask for the thing

"build me a..." not "tell me about..."

Refine by asking

"make it shorter", "add a column"
