

ONE DAY

BECOME A CEO IN 24 HOURS.

You already have the title. You do not have the job.

A CEO decides and reviews. You are still doing all the work in between.

HOUR 1

WRITE DOWN WHAT ONLY YOU CAN DO.

It is a shorter list than you think, and it is always the same three things.

Decide, sell, say no. The rest of your calendar is delegated work you kept.

01

Decide

the calls only you can make

02

Sell

the rooms that need your face

03

Say no

the thing nobody else may do

HOUR 2 - 8

HAND OVER THE REST.

You describe each job once, in plain English. It runs from there.

Research, first drafts, follow ups, the page, the paperwork.
Briefed, not done by you.

YOU DESCRIBE IT

one line, no forms

IT RUNS IT

start to finish, unattended

YOU APPROVE IT

nothing goes out without you

HOUR 9 - 20

IT WORKS WHILE YOU DECIDE.

You are in the two meetings that matter.
Eleven other jobs are running.

None of them need you present. All of them wait for you to say yes.

RUNNING

Research

the accounts you named

RUNNING

HOUR 21 - 24

YOU REVIEW. YOU DO NOT REBUILD.

Twenty minutes of approvals instead of a second working day.

It arrives finished and checked, not as a draft that moves the work back to you.

WHAT ACTUALLY CHANGED

YOU STOPPED BEING YOUR OWN EMPLOYEE.

Same company. Same day. A different job inside it.

Founders do not burn out from deciding. They burn out executing what they decided.

DOING

every job on your own desk

AFTER

DIRECTING

you decide, it executes

COMMENT

CEO

and I will send you the 24 hour switch.

The three things to keep, and how to hand over the rest.
