BECOME THE FOUNDER THEY CALL BACK.

Nobody passes because the deck was ugly.

They pass because the answer to the second question was not ready.

HOUR 1 - 6

YOUR OWN NUMBERS FIRST.

Pulled from what actually happened, not from a memory of it.

Growth, retention, what a customer costs you and what they are worth.

HOUR 7 - 20

THE STORY THOSE NUMBERS TELL.

Not the story you wish they told.

Where you are early, where you are strong, and what the money buys.

what is not working yet?

churn above 40 seats, here is the

HOUR 21 - 36

THE ROOM THEY ASK FOR NEXT.

The one you scramble to build after the first good call.

Financials, cohorts, contracts, cap table. Assembled while the call is still warm.

01

The model

assumptions you can stand behind

02

The cohorts

the chart they always request

03

HOUR 37 - 48

THE QUESTION BEFORE THEY ASK IT.

Twenty objections, answered in writing,
before the second call.

The one that kills the round is never the one you rehearsed.

WHAT ACTUALLY CHANGED

YOU STOPPED SOUNDING EARLY.

Same company. Same numbers. A different conversation.

Being prepared reads as being further along, because it usually is.
